

---

LO: I understand what our local area is like and can name the human and physical features.

What do you know about our local area? Discuss with your table the places, features that you are familiar with.

Write or draw the places you know - you could even write sentences about them e.g. What is their purpose?

