

Tuesday

You are going to need to choose one of Stanley's father's inventions to help him to sell. Here are his newest creations for you to choose from:

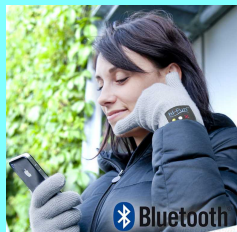

Dog goggles

Jet pack

Build before you eat

Bluetooth gloves

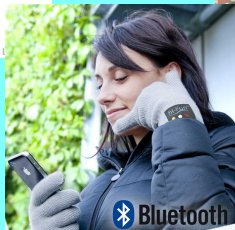

Creepy creature cups

Task 1:

Planning

Sketch your product.

Label the product to show all of the features of the product that you are going to advertise. How are you going to make it sell?

Task 2:

Now you have a product and understand how to use persuasive devices.

Your task now is to write a paragraph that sells your product using the persuasive devices sheet to develop your ideas.
